She was accompanied here by Miss Laura Neddo, who was employed in Goodwin's department store in Claremont, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Willard and daughter, Rosalind, of Galway, N. Y., who have been visiting friends in Barre for the first time in eight years, leave to-day for Lyndonville, where they will make a short stop at the home of Prof. and Mrs. O. D. Mathewson. They are traveling by automobile and will return home the latter part of the week through the northern part of the state.

A Ford car, license No. 8907 and credited in the directory to F. D. Alger of Williamstown, came to temporary grief yesterday afternoon at the intersection of Camp and Tremont streets. The young man driving the machine attempted to back around the corner from Camp into Tremont street but came too near the gutter, which deepens at this point, in order to run under a culvert. The left rear wheel left the road and the machine tipped into the ditch, only the bank saving it from turning completely over. A passing car aided in dragging it back to firm ground, and investigation revealed a punctured tire as the only injury received.

Of interest to many Barre people was a religious ceremony which took place in the convent of St. Mary's academy in Burlington Sunday evening, when two candidates were clothed in the habit of the Sisters of Mercy and began the novitiate required by the order. One of the novices thus to take vows was Miss Clair Miles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Miles of Barre, who completed a course at Mt. St. Mary's academy and afterward attended a college in New Rochelle, N. Y. She will be known as Sister Mary Loyola. Rt. Rev. J. J. Rice, bishop of the Roman Catholic diocese of Burlington, performed the ceremony, assisted by Very Rev. J. J. Gillis, and Rev. P. M. McKenna, pastor of St. Monica's church in this city. Other clergymen present in the sanctuary were Rev. F. A. Welch of Orwell and Revs. W. H. Cassidy, P. A. Barry and T. J. Liddy of the diocesan cathedral. Among those present at the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Miles, Mrs. Rose Grady, Miss Irene Grady, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Stewart and Mrs. Mary Garvey of this city, and Mrs. H. M. Miles of Melrose, Mass.

When Uncle Sam Entered the War

it changed the cotton and wool situation at once. No one will get their full purchases of cotton and wool goods. Those that have not ordered won't get much of anything. Prices have changed faster in the last few weeks than in the whole year preceeding. The earlier you buy for fall the better you will be pleased with your purchases. Here are some specials that we are closing out that will help you a whole lot to save a good proportion of your money.

Specials

If we could talk to each of you people separately, we would be glad to show you conditions of the fall market just as they are. As this talk goes for an advertisement, you must use your own good judgment, based on what you get from newspaper reports on conditions as they exist in all large cities.

At this time of the year we have lots of odd kinds that we have to close out. Now in these lots you can buy lots of kinds at half price that will do you just as well for fall as they have for spring and summer.

Indigo Prints are costing in New York to-day 12½¢. We can sell you Percalines in Indigo at 15¢. These will be 25¢ later. Lots of things just that way if you don't wait too long.

A visit to our Bargain Basement will put you in touch with lots of money-savers. See the Wash Goods kinds that are all right to make up for fall at 15¢ per yard.

Our Bargain Basement has lots of just such goods as the above. One table of Gingham at 15¢. These bought to-day would make the price 22¢ per yard.

On our first floor all of our Scotch Gingham at 29¢. These in all cities at 40¢, later will be 50¢.

Prices later, only for our early purchases, would look ridiculous. What we have will go quickly, then we will have to follow the market.

Don't plan to buy any more than you need, but do buy that amount as soon as you are able to do so.

We have already sold several Coats for fall and winter wear. These coats are costing now from two dollars to five dollars more than our early purchases and the trade in some way know it. They are better made than later garments and styles are here that later will not be in the line. This only forecasts later conditions. Use your own judgment.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Mrs. Harry Houghton of Elm street left to-day for New York, where she is passing ten days with friends.

Fifteen Barre and Barre Town young men were in the two quotas called to the county seat yesterday for examination by the county registration board.

John E. Miles, who has been a member of the training camp for officers at Fort Sheridan, Ill., passed through the city last night while on his way to Granville for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Miles.

James N. Gall has resumed his duties in the office of the Barre & Chelsea railroad, after a vacation of a week, in the course of which he represented Sudan temple, D. O. K. K., at the imperial palace session in Cedar Point, Ia.

Tearful scenes were enacted in a number of Barre homes last night, when young men of the 1st Vermont regiment tarried a few hours with their kinsfolk before hurrying back to Fort Ethan Allen to rejoin their comrades on the threshold of what may prove to be a historic journey. A contingent of Barre boys arrived in the city around 10 o'clock and left early in the morning in obedience to orders to report at 5 a. m.

Fathers and mothers, sisters, etc., living in Granville, having been advised that their relatives in khaki had reached Barre, hastened to the city to make their farewells. The young soldiers stated that automobiles in Burlington and vicinity were at a premium last night, as many of the men in the regiment were anxious to make a last, brief journey in their homes. A number of Barre people went to the reservation yesterday afternoon and others made the trip this morning, expecting to arrive in time to see the regiment entrain.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kenerson of Church street left this forenoon for White River Junction to visit the former's sister-in-law. Upon their return home to-morrow night they will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Olliver and children, who are returning to Barre after having resided for several years in Pittsburgh, Pa.

The Times is in receipt of a letter from James Duncan of Aberdeen, Scotland, in which the writer refers to the condition of Lance Corporal James Duncan of the Gordon Highlanders, who received a severe gunshot wound in his right arm as the second memento of his fighting in France. It was the second time that wounds received in battle sent him back to the hospital, and at present the young man is lying in a hospital in England. Corporal Duncan is a son of the writer and is remembered in Barre as a former resident, having been employed as a granite polisher for some years in the plant of Littlejohn, Odgers & Milne. Friends here will regret to learn of his misfortune.

TALK OF THE TOWN

W. B. Murray of Church street has returned from Brattleboro, where his family is passing several weeks at Spofford lake.

George A. Brown, Joseph Gauthier and Lucius Provencher were among the Barre men who went to Fort Ethan Allen last evening to make their farewells to relatives leaving with the 1st Vermont regiment.

Mrs. Nancy C. Clemmons, who has been staying in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Moore of Beacon street while visiting her sister, Mrs. Ellen C. Moore, returned this morning to her home in Manchester.

Mr. and Mrs. James Sector, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rockwood, Miss Katherine Abern, Mrs. N. M. Nelson and Mason O. Pierce have returned to this city, after passing a fortnight in camp at Malletts bay on Lake Champlain.

Barre players figured prominently in a week-end checker tournament at Randolph, in which the intercity team, composed of Barre and Montpelier players, won 48 games as against 37 for a team styled the all-Vermonters. Among the local men who participated were David Stephen, W. H. Messer, William A. Perry, Alexander Anderson, W. F. Bradford and Quincy H. Perry. The Montpelier players included A. D. Blanchard and Mr. Perkins. The tournament and the local victory constituted the intercity's answer to a challenge thrown down by the all-Vermonters some weeks ago. The challenging club included players from Rutland, Burlington, Derby Line and Randolph. E. N. Hyzer of Burlington, a former state champion, was active in the all-Vermont contingent. The annual state championship will be played in Barre Dec. 26, according to plans perfected at the Randolph tourney, and it is expected that a semi-official tournament will take place next July.
